† [Fecit] sacrificium vespertinum.

¶. The Lord spoke to Moses, saying: Come up to Me in Mount Sinai, and stand upon its top. Moses arose and went up into the mountain, where God had appointed him, and the Lord descended upon him in a cloud, and stood before him. Moses saw, and falling down adored, saying: I beseech Thee, Lord, forgive the sins of Thy people. And the Lord said unto him: Thus shall I do, according to your word. † Then Moses made an evening sacrifice to the Lord God for an odor of sweetness, in the sight of the Israelites.

Bring up sacrifices and come into his courts: adore ye the Lord in his holy court. 1. Sing ye to the Lord a new canticle, sing to the Lord, all the earth. 2. Sing ye to the Lord and bless his name, show forth his salvation from day to day. 3. Declare his glory among the Gentiles, his wonders among all people. 4. For the Lord is great and exceedingly to be praised; he is to be feared above all gods. 5. For all the gods of the Gentiles are naught, but the Lord made the heavens. 6. Praise and beauty are before him, holiness and majesty in his sanctuary. 7. Bring ye to the Lord, O ye kindreds of the Gentiles, bring ye to the Lord glory and honor, bring to the Lord glory unto his name. 8. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad, let the sea be moved, and the fullness thereof; the fields and all things that are in them shall be joyful. 9. Then shall all the trees of the woods rejoice before the face of the Lord, because he cometh, because he cometh to judge the earth. 10. He shall judge the world with justice, and the people with his truth.
